Dear partner in bookselling,

"When we draw near to Jesus, we see once more the light which enables us to look to the future with confidence. We find anew the strength and the courage to set out on the way." What better time than Lent to ponder these words of Pope Francis, and to offer your readers these new titles from Twenty-Third Publications, all of which invite us to deepen our relationship with the Lord:

Catholic women looking for healing and hope in their lives can do no better than to read Saying Yes!, by Kristin Armstrong and Sally Robb. These two popular authors and media personalities share their own personal journeys of heartbreak and triumph and how all these events brought them closer to Jesus...and Jesus closer to them. Facing Cancer with Mary by Catherine Stewart offers another very personal account of how pondering the mysteries of the Rosary turned a terrible diagnosis into greater trust and growth in faith. In The Intimacy You Desire, spiritual director Tom Elliott uses Ignatian spirituality to show how personal prayer can become as refreshing and renewing as sharing a cup of coffee with Jesus. Never Stop Praying by Leo Gafney provides 26 mini-retreats that open up every minute of the day to the possibility for prayer. And What Keeps Us Catholic by Mike Daley reminds us all of what is distinctive about our faith, and why we continue to practice it and love it.

Thank you for your continued support of excellent Catholic reading.

Wishing you peace and success,

Therese Ratliff

Encounters with the Risen Lord

FR. THOMAS ROSICA, CSB

NEW Fr. Tom Rosica presents the Resurrection of Jesus through a reading of the four Gospels proclaimed anew in our day. Revisiting the way the early Church understood the Resurrection, Rosica focuses less on what actually happened in the tomb on that first Easter day, and more on why suddenly it became possible to know Jesus in the everyday of history (Mark); to live the Christian life within the community called Church (Matthew); to imitate Jesus in a meaningful life in our world (Luke); and to encounter Jesus in a deep, personal, loving, evolving relationship (John).

The Seven Last Words of Christ*

REFLECTIONS BY FR. THOMAS ROSICA, CSB | PREFACE BY CARDINAL DONALD WUERL

Rosica offers reflections on the words of Jesus as he died on the cross. Interwoven with inspiration from St. Teresa of Calcutta, Pope Francis, Pope Benedict, and Pope John Paul I, these profound reflections invite us to consider our own frailties, fear of death, and thirst for justice in a modern world.

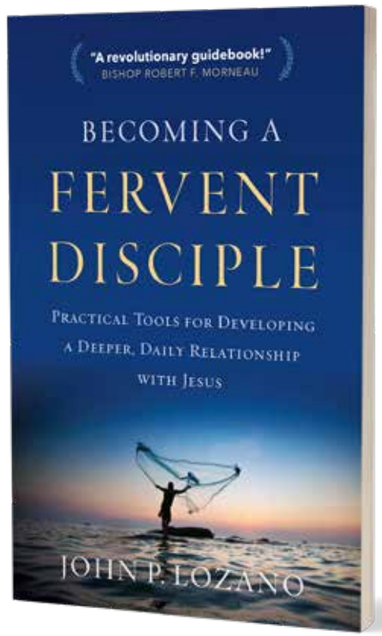
New Spirituality



Becoming a Fervent Disciple

Practical Tools for Developing a Deeper, Daily Relationship with Jesus

JOHN P. LOZANO

NEW In Becoming a Fervent Disciple John Lozano explores what it really means to follow Jesus. Too often, he says, we tend to be satisfied with being "good" disciples when God calls us to be "great" ones. Too often our Christian spirit gets "tamed and domesticated, the edge dulled, the fire cooled." It's the difference between a placid Sunday assembly and a parish community on fire with the gospel.

In a series of insightful and practical chapters, Lozano shows you how to push past the good and to strive for greatness, to become a joyful disciple, fervent and fearless in sharing the good news of Jesus' message everywhere in your life each day. 136 PAGES | $14.95 | 5½" X 8½" | ORDER 853415 | 9781627853415

JOHN P. LOZANO is a permanent deacon and has worked for 24 years in campus ministry at Villanova University and as an instructor in the department of Theology and Religious Studies. He is the founder of Encountering Jesus Today ministry.

Saying Yes!

Responding to God's Invitation to Transform and Energize Our Lives ■ A Guide for Catholic Women

KRISTIN ARMSTRONG & SALLY ROBB

NEW In this strong, affirming, practical, humorous, honest, and spot-on guide, Kristin Armstrong and Sally Robb use their own life experiences—and even their own faults and failings—to show us how saying yes to God in our own lives can fill us with God's joy and lead to transformation, even when we face difficult challenges, stress, sadness, and tragedy—for God uses our vulnerability to remind us that we are valuable, we are needed, and we are deeply loved.

I Was a Stranger and You Took Me In

A Guide for Ministering to Returning Catholics

LOYES M. SPAYD

NEW Loyes Spayd draws on a lifetime of pastoral experience to help us open wide the doors in welcome—how to clear up misunderstandings, deal with misconceptions, spark spiritual growth, and accompany people on each step of their journey back home.

With many hints and techniques for energizing ministers, both staff and volunteers, Loyes shows how diocesan and national programs can be implemented successfully, and parish-specific programs developed, all with the goal of ensuring that those who are approaching the church with trepidation and fear are met with a warm and ready welcome. This book would be ideal for staff retreats or parish council days of reflection. 96 PAGES | $9.95 | 5½" X 8½" | ORDER 853453 | 9781627853453

LOYES M. SPAYD has served as director of religious education, a member of the catechetical staff, and a lay pastor in a number of parishes, as well as developing and implementing programs for returning Catholics. She is the author of several books.

Never Stop Praying

Weekly Mini-Retreats to Grow your Faith Each Day

LEO GAFNEY

NEW Where do busy people find the time each day to set aside for prayer? So often we start off with great intentions...and then the busyness of life takes over.

Leo Gafney has a better idea: stretch your prayer and reflection over the odd moments of a normal week. Such an arrangement makes it easy to "pray always," as St. Paul instructs us.

Over 26 weeks, Gafney invites us into a series of mini-retreats devoted to themes like acceptance, peace, faith, forgiveness, work, Eucharist, and many more. Each week he offers a mental image to ponder, a Scripture passage to read, a Scripture verse to meditate on, and a weekly practice to deepen not only one's personal prayer life, but to engage with others in experiencing and sharing the faith.

What Keeps Us Catholic

35 Reasons to Feel Good about our Faith

MIKE DALEY

NEW The world seems to be full of former Catholics. And we've all heard the many reasons why people choose to leave. Maybe we've even felt some of these reasons in our own church experiences. Maybe we've thought about leaving the Catholic Church ourselves.

So what keep us here? What keeps us Catholic? And what nudges some former Catholics to think of returning home?

In this engaging book, Mike Daley answers these questions in ways that are sure both to affirm our commitment and inspire new hope in our Catholic faith community. By reflecting on topics like community, saints, prayer, Mass, parish, school, humor, sacramentality, and many more (35 in all), the author helps us see why this big, imperfect, but beautiful church of ours remains so important in our lives.

The Intimacy You Desire

Growing in Love with God through the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius

TOM ELLIOTT

NEW Saint Ignatius of Loyola believed that God invites all of us into a mutual friendship. Picking up where most books on the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises leave off, spiritual director Tom Elliott guides us toward accepting God's invitation to mutuality. To accept God's invitation means to understand ourselves, God, and personal prayer in a new way.

The Intimacy You Desire offers Ignatius' insights into how mutuality and intimacy can be experienced and developed, and it provides striking examples and practical steps for developing that relationship and our personal prayer time.

Your Money or Your Life

20 Sessions on Faith, Finances and the Choices We Make

JAMES PHILIPPS

NEW Jack Benny was a comedian in the middle of the 20th century. Much of his comedy was rooted in the running gag that he was very stingy with his money. In one sketch, a mugger approaches Jack Benny, gun drawn and says, "Your money or your life!" A pause ensues. "Well?" the would-be thief demands. "I'm thinking!" Benny replies.

The church, in a way, agrees with Jack: "your money or your life" is a choice well worth thinking about, especially in a culture that encourages us to measure our worth by how much we have or earn.

These sessions, all based on Scripture, invite us to think deeply and prayerfully about the connections between God and wealth, and how the money choices we make can lead us toward or away from the life God wants for us.

Teaching Kids to Care for God's Creation

Reflections, Activities and Prayers for Catechists and Families

MARY ELIZABETH CLARK, SSJ

NEW We all know Pope Francis has issued an urgent call to bring care for the Earth into both our spirituality and our daily actions. Here, Sister Mary Elizabeth Clark responds to Pope Francis' call by offering thirty lessons that will engage children, catechists, and families in the good work of keeping our planet livable and sustainable for coming generations.

Inspired by passages in Laudato Si' (On Care for our Common Home), the lessons and practical activities are fun and thought-provoking. The reflections and prayers in each lesson help connect our practical actions to the gospel and deepen our spiritual sense of our common home.

From activities for conserving water to developing a greater awareness of all of God's creation, this book will be a great resource for catechists and families.

Confirmed in the Joy of the Spirit

A Confirmation Journal for Teens Inspired by Saintly Heroes

TONY PICHLER AND PAULA RIEDER

NEW Here are stories of nineteen fascinating people to inspire along the way. People like:

Teilhard, the gifted scientist and priest who was forbidden to write or teach about evolution…Edith, who was born into a Jewish family, became a Catholic nun, and was sent to a German concentration camp…Henri, who spent a lifetime searching for the truth and found it caring for one person… Then there's Jorge, a man most of us know better as Pope Francis. Plus others like Cesar Chavez, Sr. Thea Bowman, St. Thomas More, St Teresa of Calcutta and many more. Their lives can show how the Gifts and Fruits of the Holy Spirit will give heroic courage and strength too.

A wonderful way to nurture children's prayer!

We Pray in Many Ways*

CHRISTINE WAY SKINNER ■ ILLUSTRATIONS BY CELESTE GAGNON

Help children deepen their relationship with God by discovering the many ways we pray. Whether children pray alone or with others, in silence or in song, at Mass or in the beauty of nature, this lovely book can help them see how much God longs to hear what they have to say, and how much God wants to speak to them. In loving, clear language and with beautiful illustrations, We Pray in Many Ways also helps children understand the many symbols, reminders, rituals, gestures, and even the people who can help them pray. Plus, a helpful guide for parents and caregivers suggests practical and creative ways to introduce different types of prayer in everyday life.

COLOR YOUR WAY TO MEDITATION AND PEACE

Spiritual Wisdom and Divine Light

A Coloring Book for Prayer and Meditation

The stunning, jewel-toned windows of cathedrals—popularly called "rose" windows—have been a rich decorative motif in sacred spaces for more than ten centuries.

With words from the Bible and saints to inspire you, here is an invitation to pause, to color, to meditate, and to pray.

Praising God with Saint Francis

A Coloring Book for Prayer and Meditation

Tradition has held that Saint Francis wrote the Canticle of the Sun, also known as the Canticle of the Creatures, from a small cottage in San Damiano, Italy in 1224 while recuperating from serious illness. Allow Francis' inspired words to bring you closer to the "most high, all-powerful and good Lord," as you bring color to these beautiful images of nature.

Facing Cancer with Mary

Reflections, Prayers and Spiritual Practices | CATHERINE STEWART, OP

NEW Catherine Stewart was not feeling well, but she never dreamed she was suffering from stage 3 colon cancer. With her life suddenly turned upside-down, she turned to Mary and the mysteries of the Rosary for solace and strength. Mary became her cherished companion through the devastating months of treatment. Now in recovery, Stewart shares her story so that we too can make Mary our travel companion through the devastating events of our own lives.

Mary's "Yes!" to God takes on a new and powerful dimension when applied to the process of being a cancer patient. Through these powerful and helpful reflections on the Rosary, including prayers and excellent ideas for journaling, Stewart shows how Mary is ready to walk with every cancer patient, bringing strength, consolation, and joy.

The Parish Emergency Kit

Responding with Compassion when Tragedy Strikes | KATHY HENDRICKS

NEW When tragedy occurs, whether it be violence or natural disaster, the local parish is often a place people turn for help and healing. This booklet helps parish leaders respond to such a tragedy through Mass, prayer services, being a place of gathering, hospitality and welcome, community outreach. It offers assistance in assessing the parish's ability to provide pastoral care and healing in the short and long term at various ages and stages (children, teens, adults, elderly). 64 PAGES | $7.95 | 5½" X 8½" | ORDER 853613 | 9781627853613
