INQUIRY-BASED LEARNING 8-BOOK SET

FAITH-FILLED READERS

PRE-SACRAMENTAL READERS

DR JAN GRAJCZONEK
The Little Catholic Explorers set invites young students to explore the Catholic Church and Prayer. Each book is grounded in contemporary early-childhood education theory and practice, and is underpinned by the inquiry-based learning approach.

Students will join Anna, Josh and their dog, Monty, on a journey to discover what happens at Mass, what’s inside the Church, and realise the power of prayer in its many forms.

RRP $69.95 Sophia $59.46 – 9781925073935

The Little Catholic Explorers set invites young students to explore the Catholic Church and Prayer. Each book is grounded in contemporary early-childhood education theory and practice, and is underpinned by the inquiry-based learning approach.

In this set, Dr Jan Grajczonek has created a series of books designed specifically for young children who are just beginning to explore the Catholic Church and their faith. Each book is written in a simple, conversational style that is suitable for children in the early years of school, and is accompanied by clear, colourful illustrations that help to bring the stories to life.

The set includes eight books in total, each focusing on a different aspect of the Catholic faith. These include:

1. What Happens at Mass?
2. What Happens in the Church?
3. Where Do We Pray?
4. God, Are You There?
5. How Do We Pray?
6. Why Do We Pray?
7. Who Helps in the Church?
8. What Is Inside a Catholic Church?

Each book is filled with short stories and activities that help children to learn about the Catholic faith in a fun and engaging way. The stories are based on real-life situations that children can easily relate to, and the activities encourage them to think about their own experiences and how they fit into the bigger picture of the Catholic Church.

The Little Catholic Explorers set is a great resource for teachers and parents who are looking for ways to introduce their young children to the Catholic faith in a safe and supportive environment. With its clear, easy-to-understand language and engaging illustrations, this set is sure to capture the attention of young readers and help them to develop a strong foundation in their faith.

Exploring the big questions of life with simple and accessible information that informs, creates dialogue, and connects Christianity with a contemporary world.

Authentic Christian Living
Rediscovering the Sacramental Imagination

GAVIN BROWN

Authentic Christian Living is written in the conviction that Christianity can both thrive within a modern setting and, at the same time, offer something of extraordinary value – something modernity cannot provide for itself. This can best be called a sacramental imagination. Gavin Brown offers an accessible introduction to the sacramental imagination – what it is, how we nearly lost it, why its recovery is essential – and, also explores the complex relationship between Christianity and today’s world. This is an excellent resource to demonstrate to students how sacramental imagination can be relevant to Christianity’s engagement with our contemporary society.

RRP $29.95  Sophia $25.46 - 9781922484475

Ecological Spirituality
Caring for Our Common Home

TRISH HINDMARSH

Ecological Spirituality shows how love of the Creator, love for each other, and love of our Earth are three facets of the same diamond. Students will explore what it means to be ‘spiritual’ and discuss what decisions and actions are needed right now to live out an ecological spirituality, to respond to the current environmental crisis, and leave a better earth for the future. The guided questions at the end of each chapter are designed to provide stimulus for student discussion. Ecological Spirituality combines inspiration with practicality to produce a timely resource for today’s students.

FAITH EXPLAINED
A Friendly Guide to The Lost Gospels
CHRISTOPHER J MONAGHAN CP

In 1945, near the town of Nag Hammadi in Upper Egypt, an Arab farmer discovered an earthenware jar filled with thirteen papyrus books. These books were Coptic translations of ancient texts originally written in Greek. Included in this collection were the Gospel of Thomas, the Gospel of Philip, the Gospel of Truth and the Gospel to the Egyptians.

These texts, along with the Gospel of Mary and the Gospel of Judas, are often referred to as the Gnostic Gospels or Gnostic Apocrypha – being influenced to varying degrees by a movement that took its name from the word for knowledge – gnostics.

A Friendly Guide to The Lost Gospels presents an overview of this vast array of writings. Students will gain an appreciation of their contexts and content, plus develop a deeper understanding of the people of faith that produced and preserved these texts.

Friendly Guides provide easily accessible information on themes fundamental to understanding Scripture, the Church and faith. Written by renowned theologians, they are bursting with colour, photos, icons, maps, charts, summary boxes and original artwork – making them ideal resources for teachers and students.
Psalm Basics for Catholics
Introduces the reader to King David, the story of Israel, and the salvation of the Jewish people through the coming of Jesus. Rarely do we step back and look at how the psalms fit into the story of salvation as revealed in the Bible the way Bergsma does here.

RRP $24.95 Sophia $21.21 – 9781925073553

New Testament Basics for Catholics
Matthew, Luke, John and Paul comprise about 90% of the New Testament. By focusing on these four most important writers, the New Testament is simplified! The final chapter of this book offers further study suggestions.

RRP $29.95 Sophia $25.46 – 9781925073393

Bible Basics for Catholics
An authentically Catholic introduction to the ‘big picture’ of salvation history that is fresh and fun. Bergsma’s charming illustrations of key biblical characters, are simple, yet surprisingly profound and help readers understand complex biblical ideas.

RRP $24.95 Sophia $21.21 – 9781925073386

Curious Kids’ Guides

Generation Laudato Si’
Catholic Youth on Living Out an Ecological Spirituality
EDITED BY REBECCA RATHBONE, SIMON APPOLONI
Written by young people aged from 17 to 35, across 20 countries – including Australia and New Zealand – this book presents the thoughts, wisdom, dreams and aspirations of a generation. They want to change how we run the economy, foster community, lead and govern, facilitate education, use and apply technology, and live among the rest of creation.

But, Generation Laudato Si’ is more than just a book – it is a call to a global conversation to foster ecological conversion. Using multimedia such as a website, Instagram, Twitter and videos, Generation Laudato Si’ presents our ecological challenges from the perspective of young people, but speaks to all generations.

This remarkable resource will excite students because it is their voice – it’s the perfect springboard for facilitating discussion on Pope Francis’ call for a new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet.

The New and the Old
Christian Communities Recontextualise Faith to a Change of Era

JIM AND THERESE D’ORSA

Jim and Therese D’Orsa draw upon their deep knowledge and expertise as they engage with theory, theology, scripture, scholarship, and research in the development of an authentically Catholic pedagogy. Educators are invited to reflect on, and critique, their assumptions about pedagogy and learning, and to consider how they see their role as a teacher; the ‘good’ they seek for their students; and, their own capacity to critique the assumptions they carry.

The New and the Old
Christian Communities Recontextualise Faith to a Change of Era

JIM AND THERESE D’ORSA

Jim and Therese D’Orsa draw upon their deep knowledge and expertise as they engage with theory, theology, scripture, scholarship, and research in the development of an authentically Catholic pedagogy. Educators are invited to reflect on, and critique, their assumptions about pedagogy and learning, and to consider how they see their role as a teacher; the ‘good’ they seek for their students; and, their own capacity to critique the assumptions they carry.

An Indigenous Voice to Parliament
Considering a Constitutional Bridge Revised Edition
FRANK BRENNAN
The Indigenous Voice to Parliament Referendum is one of the most important topics in Australia at the moment, and your students will have many questions regarding this.

But, with so much political debate surrounding this Referendum, it can be difficult to find balanced, informed – and factual – information to enable you to facilitate meaningful discussions with your students.

An Indigenous Voice to Parliament: Considering a Constitutional Bridge, by Frank Brennan – Catholic priest, human rights lawyer, and Indigenous rights advocate of 40 years – is a book based on facts and written without any divisive political agenda.

An Indigenous Voice to Parliament will arm you with the information you need to ensure you can facilitate informed, balanced, and respectful discussions with your students regarding the Referendum.

Witness, Specialist, Moderator
The Critical Role of Catholic Educators in Our Changing World
BERNADETTE MERCIECA & ANN RENNIE
Witness, Specialist, Moderator prioritises the importance of Catholic education as a framework for living, based on the ideal of loving God and loving your neighbour. It looks at where we have come from, where we are now and the hope we hold for the future of the faith in Australia and those who will carry it forward.

Authors Bernadette Mercieca and Ann Rennie have lived this book for decades. Every idea has been tested in the rough and tumble of the classroom and every chapter poses reflection questions for those who would like to engage deeper with the book.

Pre-publication Price $34.95 Sophia $29.71 – 9781922484741

Somewhere along the way, we have forgotten that religious education is not just a sacred trust but also a truckload of fun. Bernadette and Ann remind us with wisdom and grace.

Leading Catholic Schools
A Practical Guide for Emerging Leaders
ANGELO BELMONTE & RICHARD RYMARZ
Designed to equip you and your community with the skills to impart the most effective Catholic school education. It’s a contemporary approach guided by history, life, and education in the modern world, but grounded in the earliest teachings of the Church. The two main purposes of this book are: to guide the professional learning and development of aspiring leaders to encourage them to consider movement into leadership positions, and unite Catholic schools around a vision of agreed leadership practices to provide a foundation for formalised assessment against these practices.

RRP $34.95 Sophia $29.71 - 9781925009194

‘I strongly encourage that all leaders and staff in Catholic Schools ensure this book is a compulsory, and often referred to, component of their professional library.’

TONY HUNTER
Catholic School Principal
