TABLE OF CONTENTS

Dear Friends,

In both the homily for the very first Mass of his pontificate and in his very last general audience address, Pope Benedict XVI insisted beautifully, “The Church is alive!” This stirring sentiment is what comes to mind as I review the pages of the catalog you hold in your hands now.

We see that the Church is alive through the publication of the brand new Misal Romano, the very first Missal approved specifically for the celebration of Mass in Spanish in the United States. Liturgical Press is honored to publish the only edition that includes stunning, specially commissioned art, created by a gifted young Carmelite brother who was raised in Mexico and is now preparing for priestly ordination in the U.S. (See pages 2-3.)

We see that the Church is alive through the awesome collection of essays gathered in A Pope Francis Lexicon. The excitement with which the incredible list of contributors—like Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, Sr. Simone Campbell, Cardinal Blase Cupich, Anglican Archbishop Justin Welby, Carolyn Woo, and so many more—offered their insights for this book was utterly inspiring. (See pages 4-5.)

We see that the Church is alive through the rich RCIA process that is being carried out in parishes around the country, week after week, year after year. Liturgical Press is proud of our new collaboration with TeamRCIA, intended to help nurture and encourage that life, that grace. (See pages 10-11.)

We see that the Church is alive through the recent beatification of the first American priest-martyr, Fr. Stanley Rother. Our prayer card, already inspiring parishes and families around the country, attests to the power of his life and his death. (See page 23.)

I could go on, pointing out so much else that you'll find on these pages. The Church is alive! In our work here at Liturgical Press, we see it every day, and we know so many of you see it too in your lives and your ministries. Let us thank God and pray for one another.

EXCERPTS FROM THE ROMAN MISSAL

Excerpts from the Roman Missal (also known informally as the “Book of the Chair”) represents a worthy and welcome solution to a commonly voiced concern: The Roman Missal is a large and heavy book, difficult for altar servers (who are often children) to hold for the presider and to carry around the sanctuary. Developed by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and approved by the Vatican, Excerpts includes only those texts of the Missal that are used by the celebrant at the presider’s chair. The resulting volume is approximately half the size of the full Missal.

The Liturgical Press edition of Excerpts is published with the same high quality and standards as our Roman Missal. It features:

- a rich, durable, deep-red cloth cover embellished with Christ enthroned, rendered in a distinguished, bold style and foil stamped in gold and silver;
- beautiful illustrations by renowned liturgical illustrator, Br. Martin Erspamer, OSB;
- prayer texts set in readable, easy-to-proclaim type on natural ivory quality paper;
- three sturdy grosgrain ribbon bookmarks to enhance ease-of-use by celebrants;
- gilded page edges that further esteem the text visually.

A Pope Francis Lexicon

Edited by Cindy Wooden and Joshua J. McElwee
Foreword by Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew

A Pope Francis Lexicon is a collection of over fifty essays by an impressive set of contributors from around the globe, each writing on a specific word that has become important in the ministry of Pope Francis. An A-list of insightful voices from the Catholic world (and some important ones from outside it) explore the Pope's use of words like clericalism, family, joy, money, and sourpuss. Together, they reveal what Francis's use of these words says about him, his ministry and priorities, and their significance to the church, the world, and the lives of individual Christians.

The entire collection is introduced by a foreword by Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, the spiritual leader of Orthodox Christians worldwide, and a preface by one of Francis's closest advisors, Cardinal Seán O'Malley.

"This is a book to keep on the bedside table and delve into over and over again."

Cokie Roberts, author and political commentator for NPR and ABC

"This brilliant collection fizzles with the tension and tumult of this most provocative and enigmatic of papacies."

Brendan Walsh
Editor of London-based weekly Catholic journal The Tablet

"Essential reading for anyone wishing to better understand the program of this 'pope of many firsts.'"

Gretchen R. Crowe
Editor of Our Sunday Visitor and author of Why the Rosary, Why Now?

Only the Gospel Is Revolutionary

The Church in the Reform of Pope Francis

Cardinal Óscar Rodríguez Maradiaga
(in conversation with Fr. Antonio Carriero, SDB)

978-0-8146-4402-7 Paperback, 102 pp., 5 3/8 x 8 1/4, $16.95

📖 978-0-8146-4426-3 eBook, $14.99

Available April 2018

Cardinal Óscar Rodríguez Maradiaga is the archbishop of Tegucigalpa, Honduras. He is the current president of Caritas International and served as president of the Latin American Episcopal Conference (CELAM) from 1995 to 1999. He entered into the Salesians of Don Bosco in 1961 and was ordained a priest in 1970. He holds doctorates in philosophy, theology, and moral theology, as well as a diploma in clinical psychology and psychotherapy. He was named a bishop by Pope John Paul II in 1978 and elevated to the rank of cardinal by the same pope in 2001.

Fr. Antonio Carriero, SDB, is a priest and journalist. His work has appeared in L'Osservatore Romano, Vatican Insider, and the daily Italian Catholic newspaper, Avvenire.

From the beginning of Pope Francis's pontificate, Cardinal Óscar Rodríguez Maradiaga has been at the center of the Holy Father's efforts to reform the Roman Curia and the church. This is clear in his role as moderator of the council of nine cardinals from around the world entrusted with the task of advising Francis on matters relating to church governance and Vatican reform.

In Only the Gospel Is Revolutionary, Cardinal Maradiaga provides a unique, insider view of the pope's efforts, which has generated high hopes from Catholic leadership around the world, as well as opposition from within the Vatican itself. The book is also a very personal tale of the author's great friendship with Pope Francis. Open-minded, smart, and courageous, Maradiaga speaks freely, unafraid to address current and thorny issues. These include women in the diaconate, the exercise of power within the church, the need for moral and merciful immigration policies, the issue of transparency in the management of the Vatican's funds, the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI, the Vatileaks scandal, and a theological discussion about the infallibility of the pope. Through Cardinal Maradiaga's words, readers will gain fascinating new insights into Pope Francis's efforts to lead a church that is always on mission, and always "poor and for the poor."

To Dare the Our Father

A Transformative Spiritual Practice

John Shea

The Lord's Prayer accompanies the lives of Christians. When we are happy or sad, when we eagerly wait for a child to be born or silently keep watch as an elder dies, alone in the woods or together in liturgy, filled with gratitude or emptied by grief, driven to praise or dragged to repent, the Our Father finds its way to our lips.

To Dare the Our Father recognizes and respects these experiences but it envisions praying the prayer as a more sustained and challenging undertaking. How does praying the Our Father inform our thinking, feeling, willing, and acting? How does it become for us a transformative spiritual practice? John Shea explores these questions and more to discover what it looks like to become people of prayer.

"This meditation on the Our Father is vintage Shea: theologically astute, spiritually alert, deeply attuned to the needs and aspirations of the human heart. Anyone interested in cultivating a more intentional relationship to God should read this book."

Bishop Robert Barron
Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles

"John Shea is fooling us—like always. He is not just helping us open to the Our Father as a transformative spiritual practice. He is providing a richly detailed, deep, comprehensive understanding of Spirit and how we can savor imagination, vulnerability, joy, social action, faith, and communion in order to travel the path of spiritual development."

Mike Carotta, religious educator,
author of Unexpected Occasions of Grace

The Collegeville Psalter

For Sundays, Solemnities and Major Feastdays

Paul Inwood

978-0-8146-4616-8 Coil-bound

168 pp., 8 ½ x 10 ⅞, $34.95

Available February 2018

Paul Inwood is an internationally-known liturgist, composer, organist, author and speaker, whose work is to be found in hymn books across the English-speaking world. He has been honored by the National Association of Pastoral Ministers as Pastoral Musician of the Year (2009), and in 2015 was the winner of a Vatican competition for an official Hymn for the Holy Year of Mercy (Misericordes sicut Pater), which has been sung in many languages around the world. Paul's experience ranges from basic parish to cathedral- and diocesan-level positions.

The Collegeville Psalter is a brand new responsorial psalm collection for Catholic worship, composed by one of today's most accomplished and inspiring composers. It faithfully follows the U.S. Lectionary text of the psalms and responses for the complete three-year cycle of Sundays and major feastdays. It also includes settings of the "Common Texts" responsorial psalms.

The music is fresh and singable, with memorable responses for the assembly, interesting tones for the cantor, and accessible accompaniments for organ or keyboard. Psalms with different refrains or sets of verses use the same or related musical material. The book is comprehensively indexed.

An important new resource, The Collegeville Psalter serves well either as a stand-alone parish psalter or as a supplement to other psalters.

Seek the Living God Five RCIA Inquiry Questions for Making Disciples

Nick Wagner

We all know that a one-size-fits-all approach to catechumenate formation doesn't work. But until now, many of us were stumped trying to find a viable alternative. Seek the Living God: Five RCIA Inquiry Questions for Making Disciples is the answer to your prayers. Transform your RCIA inquiry process with five simple questions that will lead your seekers to lasting conversion.

PEOPLE of GOD

Paul VI Pilgrim Pope

Michael Collins

Pope Paul VI (1963–78) was one of the most important and influential pontiffs of the twentieth century. After serving thirty-four years in the Roman Curia and eight as archbishop of Milan, he was elected to succeed the enormously popular John XXIII in 1963. In this engaging biography, Michael Collins examines this deeply spiritual man who is remembered as a reformer, evangelizer, unifier, and the very first pilgrim pope.

Pope Paul VI began his papacy with a series of international journeys, the first of such a scale undertaken by any pontiff before him. These brought him face-to-face with modern life throughout the globe and the challenge of making the Christian message relevant in a secular world. Paul VI is regarded for his efforts to reduce poverty in the developing world, improve educational and health standards, and foster better relations between Catholics and Orthodox and Reformed Christians. He was beatified in 2014 by Pope Francis.

Rutilio Grande

A Table for All

Rhina Guidos

In Rutilio Grande, veteran journalist Rhina Guidos explores the inspiring life and ministry of the Salvadoran priest whose killing changed the church in El Salvador and the life of his close friend, the country's most prominent church member, Archbishop Oscar Romero. Born in a rural and poor hamlet surrounded by sugarcane fields in El Salvador, Grande went on to study in Europe and Latin America as a member of the Society of Jesus. Though he found himself in the comfort of academia, he gave it up to return to the periphery of the rural world and its people. Inspired by teachings of the Second Vatican Council and a major bishops' meeting in Medellin, Colombia, he and a team set out to teach the poor to read, to stand up for their rights, and call out injustices perpetrated by the government.

"This book, so beautifully and cleanly written, captures the life, ministry and gift of Rutilio Grande, SJ. Rhina Guidos successfully portrays the personality of a priest who lived, ministered and died with and for his people, a pastor who embodies the priestly ministry hoped for by Pope Francis. The style and accessibility of this text accurately presents the pastoral-theological model that was uniquely Rutilio Grande, his effect on the people he served, and the consequences of his love in a world that continues to crucify marginalized peoples."

Christmas, Season of Wonder and Hope

Catherine Upchurch

It is not possible to celebrate the birth of Jesus, the Christ, the very Son of God, in a single day. The church gives us a season—from Christmas eve to the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord—to reflect with wonder on what God has done and is doing in our world. The gift of this child who would go on to give his very life for our salvation is the source of our hope in every age and through every storm. In Christmas, Season of Wonder and Hope, meditate with Catherine Upchurch on three New Testament passages that invite us to move through wonder to hope.

Advent, Season of Divine Encounter

Amy Ekeh

Advent means arrival or coming. During this sacred season, we actively recall the arrival of Jesus as the Word made flesh, and we joyfully await his final return at the end of the age. But as we remember the past and anticipate the future, we are also attentive to our divine encounters in the present, the ways God “arrives” in our everyday lives. Amy Ekeh’s Advent, Season of Divine Encounter helps us look closely at three key Scripture passages to recall, recognize, and anticipate the ways God comes into our lives and our world.

Lent, Season of Transformation

Amy Ekeh

Amy Ekeh guides readers in exploring three key moments in the life and ministry of Jesus. The result will be a better understanding of the authentic transformation that God calls each of us to embrace as individuals and as a community and a renewed desire to live God’s own outward-looking, self-emptying, laying-down-one’s-life kind of love.

Easter, Season of Life and Fire

Barry Hudock

In the ancient church, the season of Easter was known as the laetissimum spatium—“the most joyful space” in the church’s calendar. In Easter, Season of Life and Fire, Barry Hudock looks at the resurrection of Jesus and the wonderful season that celebrates it through the lens of three key Scripture passages. Each one sheds new light on both who Jesus is and what it means to be a Christian today.

Seasons of Our Lives

Grow in your awareness of God's accompanying presence by reflecting on key Bible passages that move us to prayer and action.

Empty Nest, Time for Letting Go

Thomas D. Sauline

When parents find themselves alone after their children move out of the house—or when anyone's loved one moves out of the home—they may experience a very real sense of loneliness, lack of purpose, and even grief. These prayerful reflections on the Joseph story, the incarnation, and the last discourse of Jesus offer comfort and challenge to anyone with an empty nest.

Backstory Preaching

Integrating Life, Spirituality, and Craft

Lisa Cressman

978-0-8146-4514-7 Paperback, 160 pp., 6 x 9, $19.95

📄 978-0-8146-4538-3 eBook, $15.99

Available June 2018

The Rev'd Lisa Kraske Cressman, DMin, has been noted for her preaching for twenty-five years. An Episcopal priest, preaching instructor, spiritual director, and retreat leader, she is founder and steward of Backstory Preaching®.

“Long ago, Aristotle said that one of the three key ingredients in an effective communication situation is ethos, the listener’s perception of the character of the speaker. Lisa Cressman goes significantly farther by emphasizing that the character, the person, of the preacher is formative for preachers themselves.”

Ronald J. Allen

Professor of Preaching, and Gospels and Letters
Christian Theological Seminary

Instead of being a routine task on the checklist, what if sermon prep transformed you into the very word of God you preach? Instead of being a drain on you, what if the process itself renewed you? Instead of feeling insecure about your message, what if your skills made you confident to preach a consistently clear message of Good News, authentic to you, relevant to your listeners, holding their attention and inviting transformation? Backstory Preaching: Integrating Life, Spirituality, and Craft shows you how.

“Preachers who pick up this book will sit down for a wide-ranging, free-wheeling, vividly focused conversation with a colleague—one who knows firsthand, and who names succinctly not just the ‘in’s and out’s,’ but the ‘up’s and down’s’ of the vocation you share. With art and energy, Lisa Cressman has written not a textbook for preaching, but a spirituality of preaching—one pervaded with compassionate wisdom and practical strategies for soul formation, sermon formation, and the disciplined practices of heart and mind that bring both together in a lifegiving process of mutually creative nurture.”

David J. Schlafer, author of
Your Way with God’s Word, and Playing with Fire:

Preaching Work as Kindling Art

“There is much valuable and practical advice to be gleaned in this volume, but the main virtue of this book is Cressman’s compelling vision of the preaching task, so deeply rooted in prayer and so firmly focused on the gospel.”

Bandy Professor Emeritus of Preaching

The Rites and Wrongs of Liturgy

Why Good Liturgy Matters

Thomas O'Loughlin

We all want to celebrate the liturgy well, to experience good, uplifting, and meaningful worship. But what is the best route to follow? In The Rites and Wrongs of Liturgy, Thomas O'Loughlin offers a way forward that strengthens faith, builds up Christian community, and points toward a new direction based on liturgical principles that are rooted in our natures as ritual beings as well as in the gospel.

The Rites and Wrongs of Liturgy explains why good liturgy is important, how to recognize it, and how to assess liturgy in terms of a larger vision of the Christian life. O'Loughlin, a seasoned theologian and teacher, identifies ten principles that make for good liturgy. Such liturgy must be honest, open, joyful, inclusive, celebrative of community, facilitative of engagement, based in creation, attentive to the marginalized, free of clutter, and true to the pattern of the incarnation.

Since good celebrations build faith and bad liturgy weakens it, these principles promise to bring new life and meaning to every celebrating community.

Only Wonder Comprehends

John Garvey in Commonweal

John Garvey, edited by Patrick Jordan

For over forty years, John Garvey was the “ballast” of Commonweal magazine. His award-winning essays and consistently notable columns revealed not only his acuity and alacrity, but his uncommon spiritual insight. These in turn provided momentum and substance for whatever followed in an issue of the magazine because Garvey never hesitated to wrestle with some of the most challenging and intractable topics of the day, and did so with a rich pastoral sensitivity, and a refreshing and rare intelligence.

Only Wonder Comprehends gleans from John Garvey’s many contributions to Commonweal that reflect his spiritual depth and deep appreciation of history, politics, theology, and culture. Steeped in the Christian tradition, Garvey loved to write and, in return, his readers relished what he wrote. It is hoped that this collection of his writings from Commonweal will inspire readers to cultivate a similar sense of attentiveness and commitment, for as the author himself observed, “Religious traditions are meant to transform us, not to affirm us as we are.”

He is the author of Dorothy Day: Love in Action (Liturgical Press, 2015), and the editor of Hold Nothing Back: Writings of Dorothy Day (Liturgical Press, 2016). With Paul Baumann, he edited Commonweal Confronts the Century (Touchstone, 1999).

Blessed Stanley Rother Prayer Card

On September 23, 2017, an American priest whom Pope Francis formally recognized as a martyr in 2016 was beatified. Father Stanley Rother was murdered in Guatemala in 1981, after thirteen years of missionary service there. He was killed because he insisted on respect for the dignity and rights of the indigenous poor people whom he served, at a time when government forces were intent on oppressing them.

This prayer card is an ideal resource to introduce Blessed Stanley Rother to parishes, schools, families, and others. One side provides brief biographical information and a prayer, while the other side features a striking, full-color image of him. High quality card stock means this card is both beautiful and durable. To make it more easily available to parishes and other groups, budget-friendly bulk pricing is offered.

Is This All There Is?

On Resurrection and Eternal Life

Gerhard Lohfink

Translated by Linda M. Maloney

“Is this all there is?” Most certainly not. Gerhard Lohfink, one of the foremost biblical scholars of our time, provides in this book the fruit of a lifetime of deep theological reflection. Lohfink began his career with works on Jesus’ ascension and on the gathering of God’s people as the culmination of history. Forty years later, he brings those events together with his long-controversial thesis of “resurrection in death” to speak of the death-resurrection of each of us, and all of us, in ways we can all begin to understand, offering readers a profound experience of faith and hope.

“Prepare for an exhilarating and surprising ride. Lohfink leads us through all the imaginable possibilities of what happens to us when we die and then moves to a most profound description of what our faith teaches us. This is a book that must be read at least twice. Also take time to enjoy Linda Maloney’s excellent translation.”

Gerhard Lohfink was professor of New Testament exegesis at the University of Tübingen. Since 1986, he has lived and worked as a theologian for the Catholic Integrated Community. His many books include No Irrelevant Jesus, Jesus of Nazareth, and Does God Need the Church?, all from Liturgical Press.

“Gerhard Lohfink has given us a splendid book: biblically grounded, theologically astute, spiritually concrete and challenging. In a style that is limpid, poetic, and personal, he leads the reader deeper into the mystery of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection and to a renewed sense of the hope that is in all who believe in the risen Christ. Lohfink’s work wonderfully rekindles Christian eschatological faith and imagination.”

THE BIBLE

FROM LATE ANTIQUITY TO THE RENAISSANCE

Writing and Images from the Vatican Library

Edited by Ambrogio M. Piazzoni with Francesca Manzari

The Bible has inspired scholarly and artistic achievements all over the world since Late Antiquity. The largest and most diverse collection of Bibles, in both their calligraphic and illuminative expression, is archived at the Vatican Library.

The scholars who contributed to this volume were given unprecedented access to the Vatican Library archive and, while focusing on the written and illustrative themes of the Bible, have created the most comprehensive chronology to date.

This volume is a journey led by major international scholars through the Bible's development from Late Antiquity to the Renaissance era, allowing all readers of the Bible to marvel at the wisdom of the writings and beauty of the illustrations, many available here for the first time.

He teaches Latin palaeography, which pertains to both writing and illuminations, at the Augustinianum University in Rome.

Francesca Manzari, PhD, (1967) is researcher in history of medieval art at Sapienza University of Rome, where she teaches history of illumination. In 2015 she won the Houghton Mifflin Fellowship for research at Harvard University. Her research has centered on liturgical and devotional books and manuscript illumination in Avignon and Italy. She is currently working on a book on illumination in Rome during the Great Western Schism.

Courage and Conviction Unpretentious Christianity

Anthony J. Gittins

Today, many Christians, concerned and challenged by contemporary trends in society and religion, are bewildered and perhaps tempted to leave the Church and manage on their own. Courage and Conviction is addressed to thinking adult Christians who seek something between high theology and pious platitudes. Ranging from consideration of Christian identity, via the challenge of faith-filled living in a world of diversity, to suggestions for mature discipleship today, these reflections—building on Scripture studies, cultural anthropology, and life experience—are offered by way of support, encouragement, and perhaps further enlightenment.

In Our Own Words Religious Life in a Changing World

Edited by Juliet Mousseau, RSCJ, and Sarah Kohles, OSF

Written by a diverse group of younger women religious from North America, In Our Own Words offers a collection of essays on issues central to apostolic religious life today.

The thirteen authors represent different congregations, charisms, ministries, and histories. The topics and concerns that shape these chapters emerged naturally through a collaborative process of prayer and conversation. Essays focus on the vows and community life, individual identity and congregational charisms, and leadership among younger members leading into the future. The authors hope these chapters may form a springboard for further conversation on religious life, inviting others to share their experiences of religious life in today's world.

In All Seasons, For All Reasons

Praying Throughout the Year

The Christian desire to express gratitude, anguish, fear, and awe has found expression in a variety of forms of prayer. Over the centuries many fruitful approaches to prayer have taken hold, but often there is a certain unease about what is “right” or what is “best.” In this welcome and welcoming book, Fr. James Martin eases these concerns with thoughtful and practical encouragement about prayer in all of its forms. In All Seasons, For All Reasons is drawn from “Teach Us to Pray,” Fr. Martin’s popular monthly column in Give Us This Day.

James Martin is a Jesuit priest, editor at large of America, Consultor to the Vatican’s Secretariat for Communication, and author of many books, including Jesus: A Pilgrimage, The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything, and Seven Last Words.

“Fr. James Martin is one of our most popular spiritual writers—and for good reason.”

Lectionary for Mass Supplement

Since the publication of the current English-language Lectionary for Mass (a process completed in 2002), a variety of liturgical changes have expanded the possibilities for the Scripture readings that the church provides for proclamation on various occasions.

These include, among many others,

- an expanded Vigil Mass for Pentecost;
- celebrations of new saints, such as Junípero Serra, Juan Diego, John XXIII, and John Paul II;
- new Votive Masses, such as those for The Mercy of God and the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children.

Eminently readable and beautifully designed, with a sturdy ribbon bookmark, the Lectionary for Mass Supplement will complement the exceptional quality and format of current editions of the Lectionary for Mass.

Finding Jesus among Muslims

How Loving Islam Makes Me a Better Catholic

Jordan Denari Duffner

Why should Christians engage in interfaith dialogue with Muslims? Does Islam have anything to offer Christians? What is Islamophobia, and what should we do about it? Drawing from church teaching, the stories of saints and martyrs, and her extensive personal experiences living among Muslims in both the United States and the Middle East, Duffner explains why all Christians are called to participate in a dialogue of life with Muslims.

“This book is a must read by all who take seriously the need for dialogue and understanding, particularly between Muslims and Catholics.”

Bishop Mitchell T. Rozanski
Emeritus Chair of the Bishops’
Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs

“Jordan Denari Duffner’s magnificent new book is a game-changer. Unlike so many ‘interfaith’ volumes we are either talking at one another or attempting to demonstrate the superiority of our own tradition, this is a committed journey with one another. Duffner is passionately committed to not only learning about Islam and Muslims, but also with Islam and Muslims. Passionately and enthusiastically recommended for all Christians, Muslims, and people of faith who wish to live in a diverse world not in spite of our faiths, but because of them.”

Omid Safi
Director, Duke Islamic Studies Center

“Finding Jesus Among Muslims is a beautifully written and honest testimony to the value and power of interreligious learning, grounded in Jordan Denari Duffner’s own life experience, reflection, and prayer. It recounts in lucid terms the place of Islam, its piety, and friendship with Muslims in her journey as a young Catholic woman in the 21st century.”

Available December 2017

Jordan Denari Duffner is a leading Catholic voice on Muslim-Christian relations and an advocate for interreligious dialogue. Currently pursuing a PhD in Theological and Religious Studies at Georgetown University, she is also an associate at the Bridge Initiative, where she previously worked as a research fellow studying anti-Muslim prejudice. Her writing on Islam and Catholicism has appeared in TIME, The Washington Post, America, and numerous other outlets. A former Fulbright researcher in Amman, Jordan, she lives in the Washington, DC, area with her husband, Chris.

“Weaving together her own compelling life story with the richness of the Christian and Islamic traditions, Duffner teaches, inspires, and challenges us. With so much religious conflict in our world, we desperately need this passionately written testimony to grace at work in all people.”

Sacred Strangers

What the Bible's Outsiders
Can Teach Christians

Nancy Haught

In Sacred Strangers, Nancy Haught leads readers through biblical stories, line by line, to open hearts to sacred strangers at a time when personal encounters can make us or break us—as people, Americans, and citizens of the world.

“Beautifully written in a clear, engaging, and poetic style, Sacred Strangers will inspire the reader to look beyond religious and societal stereotypes to see how God’s abiding love creates prophets and saviors, even in ‘the least’ among us. We need this book now more than ever.”

Msgr. Patrick S. Brennan
Pastor, St. Mary’s Cathedral
Portland, Oregon

“Nancy Haught’s fresh Sacred Strangers is a brilliant conversation with the rest of us about unsung role models in the Bible. Haught makes the case that people we hardly know in Scripture—or in our lives today—could light our paths and elevate humanity in the twenty-first century. Prepare for delicious prose, insight, and inspiration.”

Not by Bread Alone

Daily Reflections for Lent 2018

Michelle Franci-Donnay

Prayerfully journey through Lent with Michelle Franci-Donnay’s fresh and meaningful reflections on the daily Mass readings. In just minutes per day, the insightful meditations of Not by Bread Alone can deepen your experience of this solemn season of prayer and penance and prepare you to participate more fully in the joy of the great Easter mystery.

“Here is nourishing food for the spiritual journey.”
Michael Leach, author of Positively Catholic

“This book will touch mind, heart, and soul, paving the way to the glory of Easter.”

Most Reverend Daniel E. Thomas
Bishop of Toledo

“Michelle Franci-Donnay gives us the great gift of a devotional for Lent 2018 that can be used year after year. Because her reflections are simultaneously personal and universal, readers will easily identify with what Franci-Donnay offers for contemplation. Each entry includes a meditation with prompts to help readers explore daily readings, Scripture, and Franci-Donnay’s reflection, as well as a prayer. Not by Bread Alone is a rich resource that stands out among devotionals.”

Redemption and Restoration

A Catholic Perspective on Restorative Justice

*Edited by Trudy D. Conway,
David Matzko McCarthy, and Vicki Schieber*

“The statistics and stories overwhelmingly prove that restorative justice works. I am so pleased to see this book with such comprehensive wisdom and information about restorative justice.”

John Sage

Founder and CEO of Bridges To Life

“Those of us who work in the criminal justice environment know that it is broken, a system where issues of race, poverty, even geography, ensure that the playing field is anything but equal. We need to change how this system works if we are to end the warehousing and killing of our own citizens. That’s where restorative justice—and this book!—come in.”

Sr. Helen Prejean, CSJ

Author of Dead Man Walking and
The Death of Innocents

“Restorative justice shows us a path toward true kinship and this book offers great wisdom for how the Church can be a beacon for reconciliation, healing and hope in a hurting world.”

Transcending Generations

A Field Guide to Collaboration in Church

Meredith Gould

“In a culture (and sometimes a church) that separates and stresses differences, Meredith Gould has given us a treasure that is so needed—thoughts and practices that accentuate our unity, our likeness. Her book is filled with new insights, reflective questions, and perceptive exercises.”

Janet Schaeffler, OP

Author of Deepening Faith: Adult Faith Formation in the Parish

“Transcending Generations is a resource that is long overdue. This book is filled with helpful insights for organizations and faith communities seeking to understand and benefit from differences in generations. Meredith Gould offers a way for individuals and groups to maneuver successfully through the challenges and changes of life.”

Rev. Dr. Richard W Rouse, ELCA pastor
and author of *Beyond Church Walls:
Cultivating a Culture of Care*

“Transcending Generations lays everything on the table for pastors, church leadership, staff, and laity to navigate ministry in the 21st century. I wish I had this book 10 years ago.”

THE DEACON'S MINISTRY

CELEBRATE
THE 50TH
ANNIVERSARY
of the restored
permanent diaconate!

The Deacon's Ministry series explores the three fundamental diaconal ministries identified in the teaching of Vatican II: those of the liturgy, of the Word, and of charity to the people of God (Lumen Gentium 29). This series, written by three highly regarded permanent deacons, offers a rich combination of theology, spirituality, and practical and effective guidance.

Deacons and those in diaconal formation, their families, the bishops and priests they work with, and the people they serve will welcome it.

The Deacon's Ministry of the Liturgy

Frederick Bauerschmidt

"Deacon Frederick Bauerschmidt deals in very practical terms with the multifaceted aspects of the deacon's liturgical ministry, but also with the spirituality of his service. There is a superb balance struck between attending to the 'situational awareness' of the liturgy and the deacon's prayerful participation. Quite simply, The Deacon's Ministry of the Liturgy is splendid and I cannot recommend it highly enough."

The Deacon's Ministry of Charity and Justice

William T. Ditewig

"Insightful, accessible and engaging, this new work should be required reading for anyone with a serious interest in the diaconate—from men in formation to deacons, pastors and bishops. Significantly, Deacon Ditewig's chapters on mercy and Pope Francis couldn't be more timely or valuable—reminding us of what we are called to be. Superb."

The Deacon's Ministry of the Word

Jay Cormier

"There is no such thing as 'diaconal' preaching, as distinct from presbyteral or lay preaching. But, as Cormier notes, there is a way in which the distinct experiences of the deacon—as a man of service among the marginalized—should shape his preaching. Using an abundance of clear and simple examples, mostly drawn from his own preaching, Cormier illuminates that way. Cormier shows how the deacon can 'pass his life through the fire of thought' in order to speak a relevant word for ordinary folk struggling to make sense of the Gospel in daily life."

New Mass Settings!

Celebrating
the 50th
of Musicam Sacram!

Allendale Mass

Tobias Colgan, OSB

The Allendale Mass is a simple, unison setting that religious communities and parishes alike will find both prayerful and easy to sing. This musical setting expresses a humble reverence for the texts, allowing them to speak directly to the hearts of the singers.

Mass of Exultation

Matthew S. Still, Composer

Mass of Exultation is a festive and celebratory Mass setting written for assembly, SATB voices, organ, brass quintet, and timpani. Stylistically reflecting the spirit of Richard Proulx's A Community Mass and A Festival Eucharist, this setting is perfect with full orchestration in a cathedral setting as well as for use with organ and cantor alone. Mass of Exultation also offers versatility with presider intonations for the acclamations as well as an alternate Great Amen and Agnus Dei.

Light in the Darkness

Preparing Better Catholic Funerals

“Light in the Darkness is an utterly practical manual based on the author’s long experience as a pastor. This shows in the way it begins with a section on Pastoral Care before moving on to look at rituals and provide practical resources. What a treasure box the ‘Toolbox’ section is, particularly for clergy.”

Whose Mass Is It?

Why People Care So Much about the Catholic Liturgy

“Paul Turner offers us a concise and accessible guide to the post-Vatican II eucharistic liturgy, replete with a great deal of historical information. This book should provide an excellent guide for parish liturgy committees and anyone interested in gaining a fuller understanding of what we do when we come together for Eucharist.”

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Ritual Edition

The first section of the ritual, marking the steps of the spiritual journey into the full communion of the Catholic Church, offers the procedures and periods that make up the full rite. The second section provides the necessary ritual for celebrating the rite in other forms. Ribbon markers and gold-stamped leather-like red cover make this ritual edition a handsome addition to the sanctuary.

When Other Christians Become Catholic

Paul Turner

“This is an excellent overview of the program that will help pastors to train those who teach or sponsor candidates in the program, or who would like to explain the historical basis for revival of the catechumene program at the parish level. It should be read by pastors and be on the shelves of seminary libraries.”

A Season of Little Sacraments

Christmas Commotion, Advent Grace

Susan H. Swetnam

“While many books advise readers to swim upstream during Advent by not putting up the tree or not sending cards to family and friends until Christmas Eve, Susan Swetnam’s book takes a different approach, one that helps Catholics both embrace and reverently celebrate the craziness and the sacredness of the season.”

What's the Smoke For?

And Other Burning Questions about the Liturgy

Johan van Parys

What are Vespers? Where have the consecration bells gone? Why do some liturgical ministers vest and others don't? Blinking sneakers on altar servers, Christmas trees in January . . . what is that all about? These are some of the candid questions that Catholics and others often wonder about the liturgy. In What's the Smoke For? expert liturgist Johan van Parys offers helpful and engaging answers.

"Clearly written, concise responses to real questions make this a delightful book, enjoyable either one topic at a time or as an extended trip through the Catholic world."

Robert J. McCarty, DMin

National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry

Hail Mary, Holy Bible

Sacred Scripture and the Mysteries of the Rosary

Clifford M. Yeary

“Drawing on the wisdom gleaned during decades spent helping Christians understand the Bible, Clifford Yeary explores the divine mystery at work in the mysteries of Scripture remembered in the Rosary. Each of the twenty chapters clearly shows how biblical scholarship can nurture the faith of those who read, pray, teach or preach these mysteries. This is a short book that merits long pondering.”

Resurrection

The Origin and Goal of the Christian Life

Frank J. Matera

“With his usual clarity and brilliance, Matera presents a comprehensive mosaic of the multiple images, metaphors, and expressions used by each of the New Testament authors to speak of Christ’s resurrection. Like a diamond whose many facets refract the light differently with each turn, so Matera illumines the theological meaning of this mystery for Jesus’ followers.”

Catholic Opposition to the Death Penalty

Vicki Schieber, Trudy D. Conway, and David Matzko McCarthy, editors; Foreword by Helen Prejean, CSJ

"Where Justice and Mercy Meet is an indispensable resource for professors, teachers, catechists, and prison and social justice ministers. Widely accessible, it maintains intellectual rigor as it witnesses to the 'hopeful perseverance' of Dorothy Day in the subversive joy of the Gospel. Take up this book in hopeful perseverance to end a practice that diminishes the humanity in and between all of us."

Lent 4.2

Caring for Our Common Home

Lent 4.2 is a seven-week bulletin insert program for Catholic parishes inspired by Pope Francis's call to care for our common home. These Lenten inserts are rooted in a spirituality of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Each week focuses on the significant issues facing our human family, what the church is saying about them, and how we can take practical steps to make a difference in the world.

If the Earth was divided among all of us, each person would receive 4.2 acres. In reality it takes 17.2 acres per person to maintain the average American lifestyle. Lent 4.2: Caring for Our Common Home offers a new way of observing Lent that helps Christian communities follow the call of Pope Francis, walk in the footsteps of Jesus, and live in harmony with God, creation, and the entire human family.

Schools of Solidarity Families and Catholic Social Teaching

Mary M. Doyle Roche

"This is the rare book that gets precisely right the true meaning of the phrase 'family values.' Grounding her recommendations in the tradition of Catholic social thought and bringing its core values into dialogue with contemporary challenges, Roche invites families to 'turn outward to others' and to 'flex their solidarity muscles.' Readers will find this book accessible, creative, probing, practical, and above all joyful."

Stewardship
Living a Biblical Call

Bernard F. Evans

“Stewardship: Living a Biblical Call is a ‘must’ read for any person wanting to understand the difference between raising money for secular organizations and raising money for the church. Bernie reminds us that Christian stewardship is not about ‘asking for money’ but rather about helping people understand their relationship to their money and moreover all the ‘gifts’ that God has given them. Bernie Evans reminds us that in the final analysis stewardship is an ‘act of worship’ to a God whose economy is one of ‘abundance’ not ‘scarcity.’”

“Same Call, Different Men is a must-read for bishops, priests, any Catholic, or any person seeking to know and understand what priests feel on a wide range of issues. The current research builds upon previous studies giving one a sense of what has changed and what remains the same in the lives of priests. What fulfills priests, what frustrates and upsets priests, what challenges them in their ministry are all addressed in the research as well as how the sexual abuse crisis has pained and burdened priests. Programmatic follow up to this research is critical and would help address the need for more priests.”

Glory in the Cross

Holy Week in the Third Edition of The Roman Missal

Paul Turner

Noted liturgist Paul Turner explores the rubrics and prayers of the current rites of Holy Week paragraph by paragraph, explaining the historical development of individual components, how and why the post-Vatican II liturgical reform made its revisions, and where The Roman Missal, Third Edition has added nuances.

“Glory in the Cross is a splendid book. This book deserves a wide readership: liturgists, music directors, liturgy committees, priests, deacons, and all who have a substantial role in preparing some of the most beautiful liturgies during the liturgical year.”

Chants of The Roman Missal

Study Edition

International Commission on English in the Liturgy

The Chants of The Roman Missal: Study Edition is for celebrants, cantors, scholars, musicians, and everyone interested in the English chant of the newly translated Roman Missal.

“In Chants of the Roman Missal: Study Edition, the International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) has produced a ‘stand alone’ edition of all the chants of the new missal along with an extensive and useful commentary that fills the first sixty or so pages of this publication. The commentary has two goals: to be a primer for those—especially presiders and those who would train them—who wish to use the missal chants and to provide the background and rationale for ICEL’s adaptation of the Gregorian melodies and formulas for use with English texts. The information provided by this publication can only make more effective the rendering of these chants in our Eucharistic celebrations. The commentary concludes with a list of useful resources.”

A Commentary on the Order of Mass of The Roman Missal

Foreword by His Eminence, Cardinal Roger Mahony; Edward Foley, General Editor

Gathers the insights of liturgical scholars to aid understanding this most recent edition of the Order of Mass and its new English translation.

“A Commentary on the Order of Mass of the Roman Missal is essential reading for every pastor, seminarian, liturgical planner, and interested parishioner of the congregation. This commentary is all-encompassing and considers every aspect of the newly translated liturgy and meticulously addresses the historical and theological developments of the Church’s primary prayer.”

Catholic Library World

“This is a marvelous resource for teaching, catechesis, and consultation, as well as an interesting and richly informative study for a broad audience of canonists, liturgists, theologians, students, clergy, and pastoral ministers.”

The Easter Proclamation (Exsultet)

Charles Rohrbacher

Enhance the visual beauty of this most sacred moment in the Easter Vigil as your cantor chants the Exsultet from this one-of-a-kind, illuminated ritual edition of The Easter Proclamation.

"This is a marvelous publication. Charles Rohrbacher, an iconographer from the diocese of Juneau, is the artist. Having the Exsultet in its own liturgical book is a brilliant idea. I plan to enshrine the copy I ordered for the parish near the Paschal candle during the season of Easter."

SACRED SONG

Sacred Song is a modern, Catholic, three-year hymnal that easily supports congregational singing throughout the liturgical year. It contains over 950 liturgical music compositions—classic, contemporary, chant, and traditional.

Sacred Song includes:

- the Order of Mass with ICEL Chants—accompaniment composed by Anthony Ruff, OSB;
- the complete Psallite collection of over 290 liturgical antiphons inspired by the entrance, responsorial, and Communion songs for each Sunday and solemnity of all three years of the liturgical cycle;
- responsorial psalm antiphons from the Basilica Psalter;
- new music for Christian initiation, weddings, and funerals from Psallite;
- classic Gregorian chant music, including over 30 hymns/chants in Latin, most with English translations (including the Marian antiphons), plus the entire Latin chant Mass Iubilare Deo;
- a wide variety of hymns and songs reflecting the breadth of the Catholic tradition—from classic hymns to contemporary music from GIA Publications, Hope Publishing, World Library Publications, Oregon Catholic Press, Selah Publishing, Liturgical Press, Oxford University Press, and more.

Sacred Song features the following Mass settings:

- The Psallite Mass: At the Table of the Lord by the Collegeville Composers Group
- Mass in Honor of Saint Benedict by Robert LeBlanc
- Mass in A Minor by Frederick Strassburger
- An Austrian Mass by Michael Haydn, arr. by Anthony Ruff, OSB
- Land of Rest Acclamations by Richard Proulx
- Missa Pacem by L. Randolph Babin
- Mass in Honor of Saint Paul by Kevin Christopher Vogt
- Mass in Honor of Saint Cecilia by David Hurd
- Mass in Honor of Saint Dominic by Matthew S. Still
- The entire Latin chant Mass Missa Iubilare Deo, Vatican Edition
- Acclamations from Mass of Creation by Marty Haugen

La Biblia de Nuestro Pueblo con Lectio Divina

Lea reflexione ore actúe Biblia del Peregrino América Latina

Luis Alonso Schökel

Esta es la Palabra de Dios para hablar a los corazones a través del método de la Lectio Divina: leer, reflexionar, orar y actuar.

Gracias al trabajo constante que se viene realizando tanto en el mundo católico como en las demás confesiones cristianas, la Palabra escrita de Dios está continuamente siendo actualizada, tanto en traducciones cada vez más fidedignas al hebreo y griego originales como en la elaboración de comentarios que conecten el texto con las necesidades y aspiraciones concretas del hombre y de la mujer de hoy, sean creyentes o no creyentes.

Con el mismo deseo de seguir en ese camino de mejora continua de la traducción y de acercarnos a la situación concreta de los destinatarios, presentamos al lector latinoamericano esta nueva edición de la Biblia del Peregrino, ahora titulada: La Biblia de Nuestro Pueblo—Biblia del Peregrino América Latina.
