PAT YOURSELF ON THE BACK

The busy fourth term is upon us – but please give a moment to yourselves to acknowledge the super job you have done this year and how you may have positively changed lives forever. It is also a great time to continue to spread the MJR philosophy.

HINTS FOR BRINGING MJR ALIVE IN YOUR COMMUNITIES

A. For the end of the year MJR classes.

In Tassie, Marty asks the students “What has MJR taught me this year?”

Click here for a PDF you can use to write on. Mitch often finishes with the following questions:

1. How have I grown as a person this year? What have I improved in?
2. Their responses to “Where did I see the Spirit of Jesus over the last 3 days?”
3. What lesson from the Spirit of Jesus book helped me to improve?
4. What do I like about the Spirit of Jesus book?
5. What can I do this term to become a better person?

We get great responses to these questions and I suggest you put some of your comments in your school newsletter.

B. Going to the Heart Room

After lunch, get the students to go to their Heart Room by giving them 3 minutes to be at peace. Then ask them, “Where did they see the Spirit of Jesus over the last 2 days?” and to write in their book “I saw the Spirit of Jesus when ...

This should take 5 minutes. This is what the kids will read in the future about what they thought of as an 8 or 9 year old, when they are older.

C. Some MJR moments for staff meetings

Ask teachers to share for 3 minutes on where they have seen the Spirit of Jesus in their class or in the school.

D. At the end of the weekly school assembly finish with:

“Live Jesus in our Hearts FOREVER”
