Where was Jesus in my life today?

What was the best thing I heard today?

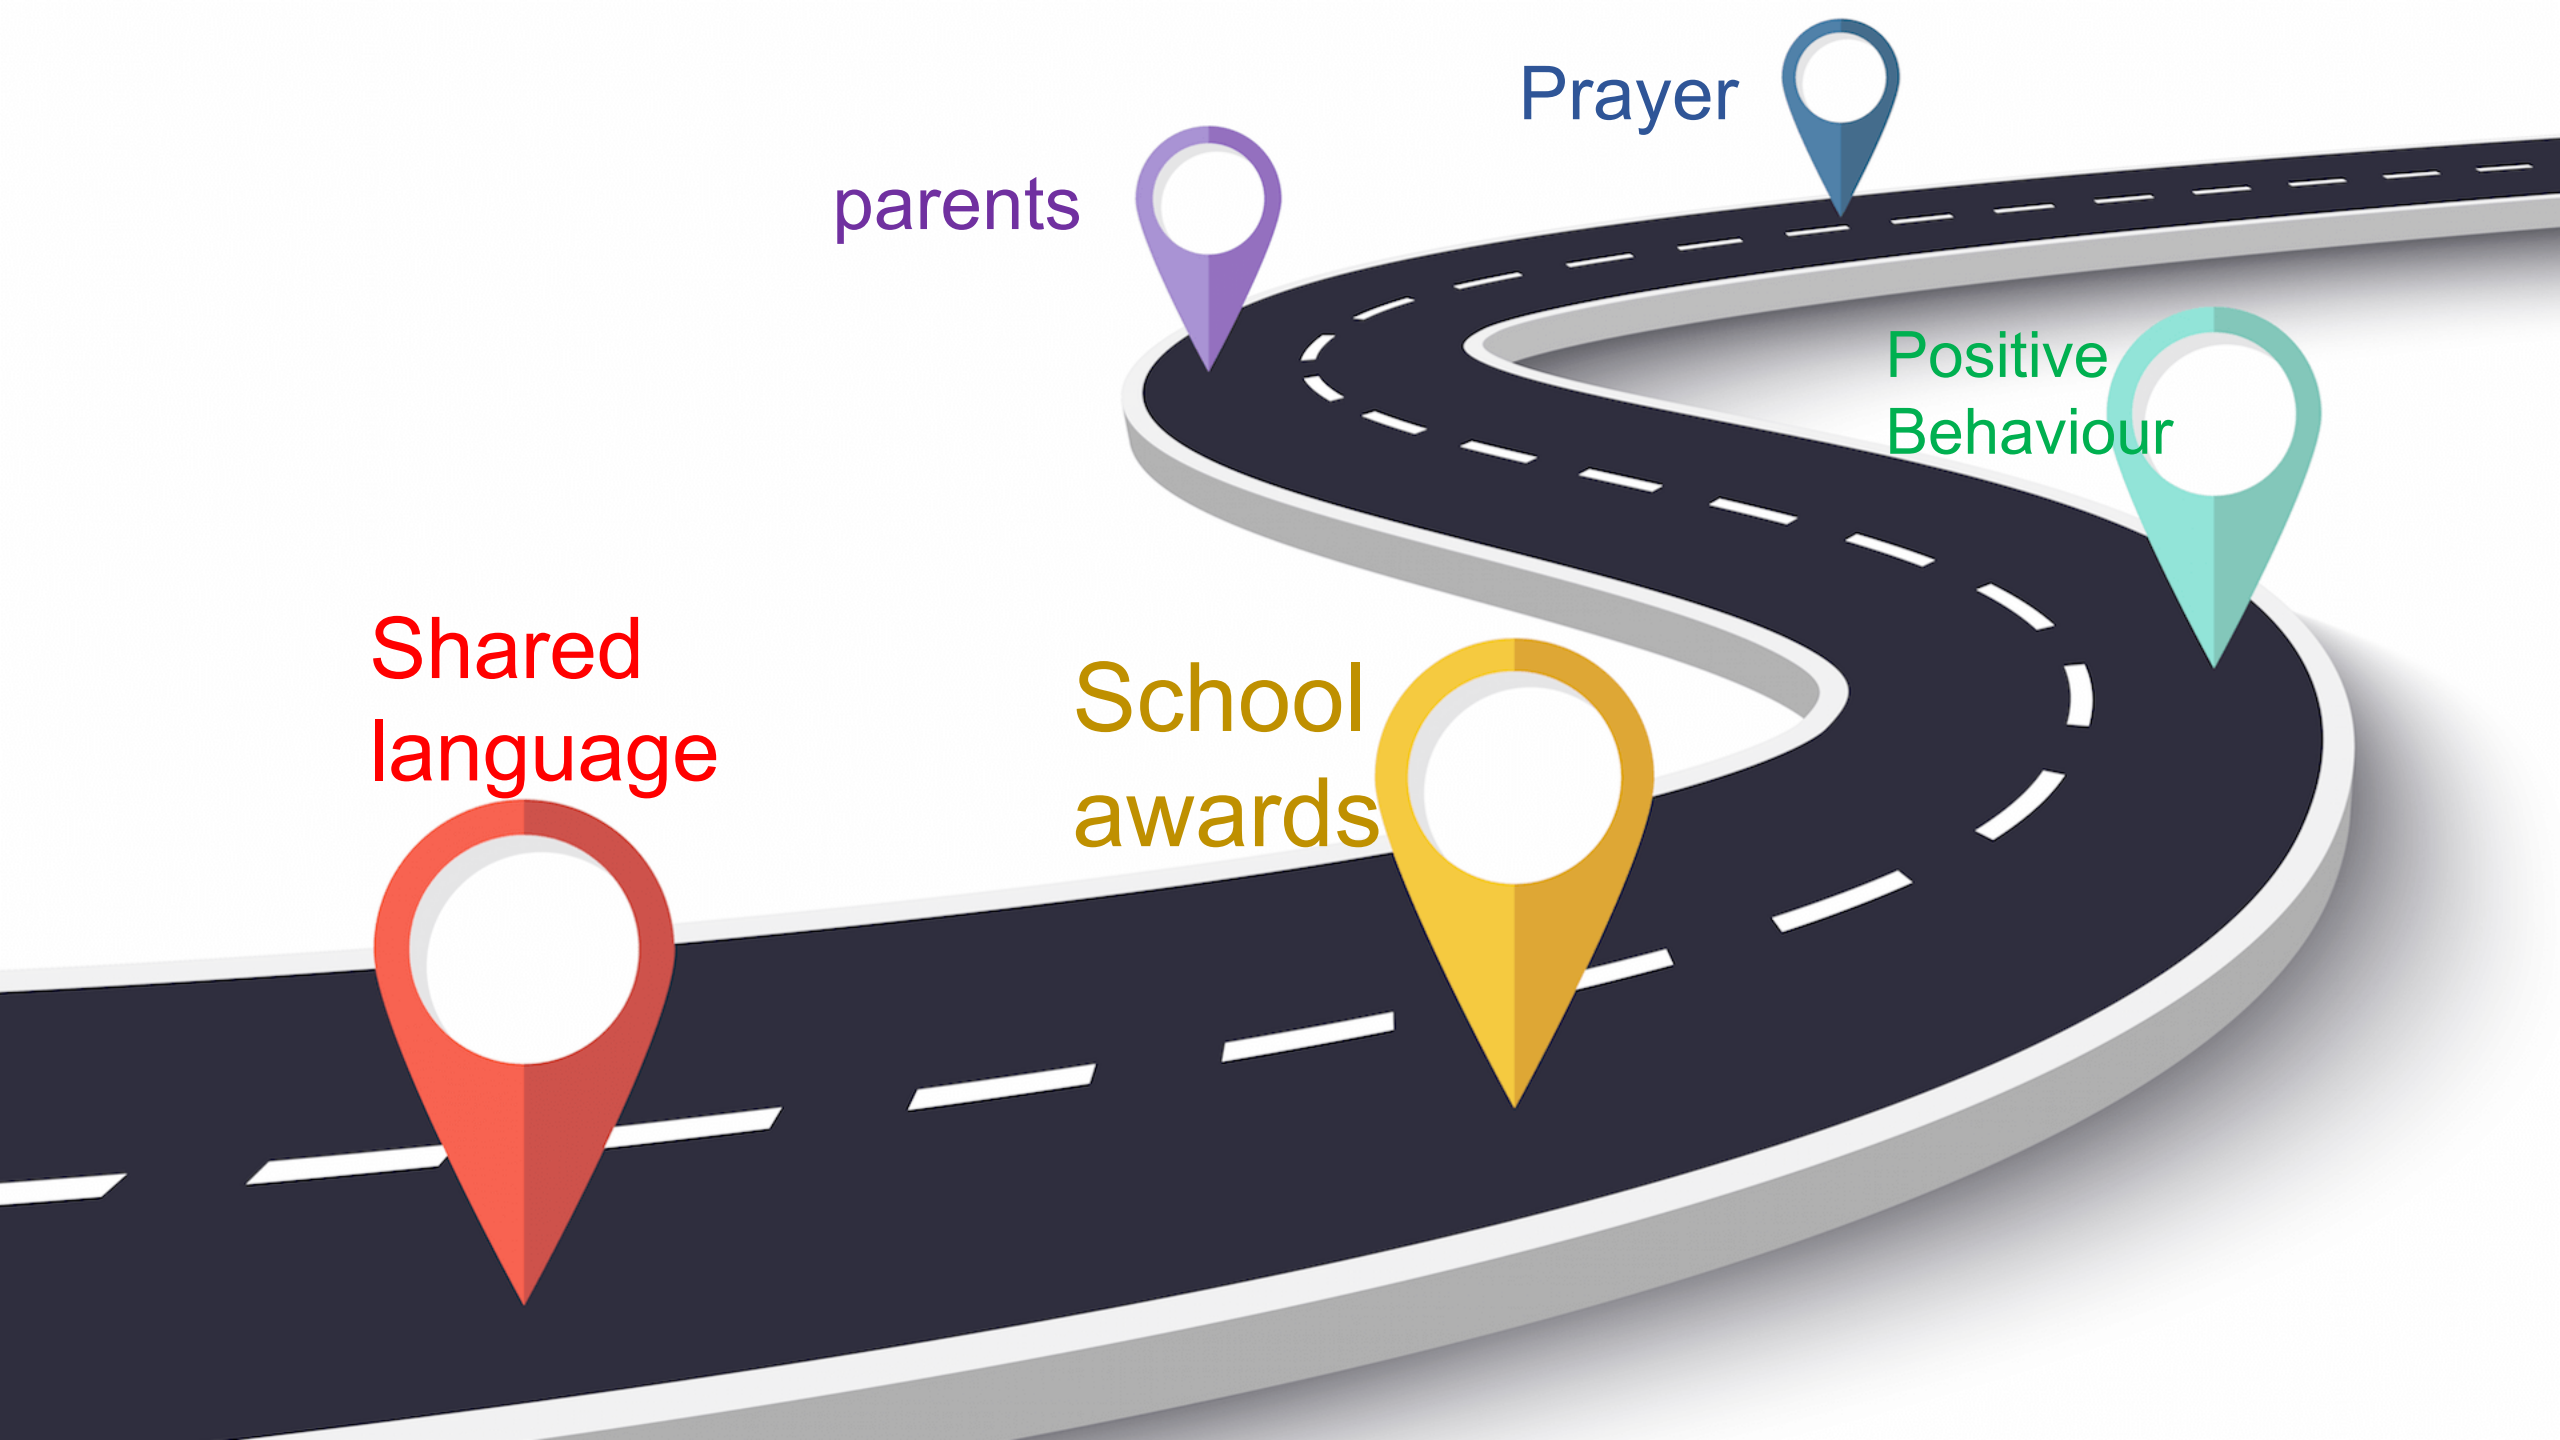

What was the best thing I saw today?

What was the best thing someone did for you today?

What was the best thing I did for someone today?

What could I do to improve tomorrow?

Governance brings the right people together at the right time to discuss the right (important) things.”

“it is a holiness found in our next-door neighbours,
those who, living in our midst,
reflect God’s presence”

(Francis, 2018, #7).

“The important thing is that each believer discern his or her own path, that they bring out the very best of themselves, the most personal gifts that God has placed in their hearts (cf. 1 Cor 12:7), rather than hopelessly trying to imitate something not meant for them. We are all called to be witnesses, but there are many actual ways of bearing witness.”

(Francis, 2018, #11).

“Yes, I have many human faults and failures... But God bends down and uses us, you and me, to be his love and his compassion in the world; he bears our sins, our troubles and our faults. He depends on us to love the world and to show how much he loves it.”

(Saint Teresa of Calcutta)

We are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves.

(Francis, 2018, #14).

“Led by God’s grace, we shape by many small gestures
the holiness God
has willed for us”

(Francis, 2018, #18).

“Try to do so by listening to God in prayer and recognizing the signs that he gives you. Always ask the Spirit what Jesus expects from you at every moment of your life and in every decision you must make, so as to discern its place in the mission you have received.”

(Francis, 2018, #23).

““Holiness is also parrhesía: it is boldness, an impulse to evangelize and to leave a mark in this world.

To allow us to do this, Jesus himself comes and tells us once more, serenely yet firmly: “Do not be afraid” (Mk 6:50).

(Francis, 2018, 129).
