Linking Garratt Publishing RE resources to Australia's most used religious education project.

About this document

To Know, Worship and Love is a Religious Education Project based on the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the Scriptures and liturgy and used extensively by schools throughout many diocese in Australia.

Whilst the series of 13 To Know, Worship and Love texts cover a wide array of topics, and provide a wealth of resources relevant for young Catholics from Kindergarten/Prep through to Year 12, Garratt Publishing's own religious education resources offer alternative, additional and supplementary material to help teachers engage modern-day learners in the classroom.

This guide outlines a selection of RE resources published or distributed by Garratt Publishing, and shows where they may be used within the To Know, Worship and Love project or curriculum framework.

Using this guide we hope that educators will be better informed on what additional resources are available to further engage students in their religious studies, help lesson planning, and even aid in purchasing decisions to maximise the return on their RE budgets.

Note too, that like To Know, Worship and Love which has the Imprimatur of the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne, RE resources published by Garratt Publishing always carry an Imprimatur from an Australian Diocese.
