RELEASING THE CAPTIVE Reflections for the Year of Mark

GEOFFREY PLANT

Releasing the Captive may be an evocative title for a book of Gospels. However, the title arises from an exorcism that Mark places at the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. Jesus meets a man with symptoms, that today, might identify as epilepsy. Jesus heals him. He has been set free. Released from captivity. This is what exorcism is all about.

Although exorcism is not a feature in the lives of most 21st century readers, some have forces of which they have little or no control, that hold them captive. Forces that rob them of freedom, alienate them from God and others, and stunt their human growth. Many modern addictions can hold us captive. Not only substance addictions, but also our addiction to possessions, to wealth, to position and power, and to busyness.

Jesus invites us to confront the truth about our own lives and the choices we make, to make a personal stocktake. In Releasing the Captive, Geoffrey Plant issues an invitation: to engage more deeply with the word by reflecting on the Sunday Gospels.

Plant once again proves that he is an eloquent and engrossing master storyteller. He breaks open the word, drawing together biblical and contemporary contexts. His stories inform and delight, illuminating the text to deepen understanding of the Gospels and enhance participation in the Sunday liturgy.

Releasing the Captive, will be welcomed by priests and pastoral associates, students of Biblical Studies, Bible Study groups, teachers, and individuals wishing to enrich their own spiritual understanding as well as learn more about themselves.

LIVING IN HARMONY Garratt Lenten Program Year B

JOAN CHITTISTER, BR PAUL CREEVEY, ANDY HAMILTON, GERARD MOORE, FR PAUL ROWSE, DEBRA SNODDY

We are living in a period where political talk has become increasingly oppositional and polarising, setting the tone for public and private discussion. Despite our wealth and cohesion, we are somehow convinced that this is not the best of times. We seem reluctant to act to avoid what is pending to be the worst of times.

This is our Lenten fare, the stuff of our Lenten fast. One aspect is the need for harmony. It is a word reduced too much to wellbeing; we will pursue its faith dimensions. Harmony is a discipline. It has to be won, held, remade, revalued. At its best, it is built around the joyful play of difference, a mutual love and respect, and a treasuring of other voices and ways. It builds for a trust and consensus.

In keeping with the theme of this year's Lenten Program – Living in Harmony – we are excited to offer not one but six authors who worked together to produce this year's Garratt Lenten program, featuring Joan Chittister, Paul Creevey, Andy Hamilton, Gerard Moore, Paul Rowse, and Debra Snoddy.

We invite you to enter into our Lenten resource. They open up the Sunday readings and provide us with probing questions – uniting these insights in 2024 to build a vital and dynamic response of Christian harmony. This is the best of Lent, and leads to the best of times.
